Grant summary:

The project “Clean Neighborhoods, United Community”, implemented by the volunteer initiative Studio Space, aims to improve the cleanliness of Prishtina’s neighborhoods and strengthen the sense of collective responsibility towards the environment. The project mobilizes citizens to protect the environment and improve common spaces, promoting volunteerism, community cooperation and civic responsibility. Through the organization of monthly cleaning actions and information sessions on environmental protection, the project aims to transform common spaces in neighborhoods, increase civic awareness and strengthen the connection between residents in the community where they live.
