Grant summary:	The project “Strengthening Civic Readiness for Environmental Volunteerism” aims to mobilize the community and volunteers in Shterpce for environmental protection. Through roundtables with citizens and institutional representatives, the project will identify environmental priorities and promote cooperation between the community and local institutions to address them. During the implementation of the project, cleanup activities will also be organized, serving as a model for promoting environmental volunteerism and civic engagement in environmental protection. Through these activities, the project aims to raise citizens’ awareness of environmental protection and contribute to the creation of a sustainable culture of volunteerism within the community.
